Your Living Image Prayer
From St. Faustina

"I want to be completely transformed into Your mercy and to be Your living reflection, O Lord. May the greatest of all divine attributes that of Your unfathomable mercy pass through my heart and soul to my neighbor.

Help me, O Lord that my eyes may be merciful, so that I may never suspect nor judge from appearances, but look for what is beautiful in my neighbors' souls and come to their rescue.

Help me, that my ears may be merciful, so that I may give heed to my neighbors' needs and not be indifferent to their pains and moaning.

Help me, O Lord, that my tongue may be merciful, so that I should never speak ill of my neighbor, but have a word of comfort and forgiveness for all.

Help me, O Lord, that my hands may be merciful and filled with good deeds, so that I may do only good to my neighbors and take upon myself the more difficult and toilsome tasks.

Help me, that my feet may be merciful, so that I may run to assist my neighbor, overcoming my own fatigue and weariness. My true rest is in the help of my neighbor.

Help me, O Lord, that my heart may be merciful; that I myself may feel all the sufferings of my neighbor. I will refuse my heart to no one. I will be sincere even with those who, I know, will abuse my kindness. And I will lock myself up in the most merciful Heart of Jesus. I will bear my own suffering in silence. May Your mercy, O Lord, rest upon me. O my Jesus, transform me into a living reflection of You, for You can do all things." Amen.
