

Dear Andrew and Amber

*I will lend you for a little moment a child of mine
For you to love while she lives a little time.*

*She will be with you a few months you shall see
But please take care of her until I take her back with me*

*She will bring her charms to gladden you, and her stay will be brief
You will have her lovely memories as comfort for your grief.*

*I cannot promise how long she will stay, since all from earth have to return
But there are lessons she will bring for you all to learn*

*I have looked the world over in my search for a special set of parents to be true
And from all the parents that I could trust I have selected you*

*Now will you give her all the love you can and leave nothing in vain?
And please forgive me when I come back to take her back with me again?.*

*She will bring love, delight and a new set of friends in your life.
When she comes back to Heaven all the others will help you with your strife.*

*Shelter her with tenderness, love her in body while you may
And for the happiness you have known, forever grateful you will stay*

*Should the Angels call her home sooner then you have planned
Please be brave the bitter grief that comes and try to understand*

*For all the joy thy child shall bring, the risk of grief you will run
She will come back to Heaven and Thy will be done*

You are in my loving arms,

Jesus
